

GICHD Ethical Guidelines

The GICHD will not partner with companies :

1. involved in the manufacture or distribution of armaments
2. that have been found guilty of exploitation of individuals or nations (e.g. pornography, fraud, corruption, bribery, or other criminal activity) or whose brand/public image is associated with exploitation
3. that do not respect internationally recognised human rights and fundamental labour standards, including those found in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the International Labour Organization's Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work, nor companies involved either directly or indirectly in violations of international humanitarian law