

Information Note

Geneva, Switzerland, 9 - 11 April 2025

Dear registered participant,

The United Nations Inter-Agency Coordination Group on Mine Action (IACG-MA) and the Geneva International Centre for Humanitarian Demining (GICHD) are looking forward to welcoming you to Geneva for the 28th International Meeting of Mine Action National Directors and United Nations Advisers (NDM-UN28).

Please find some useful information for your visit.

I. Arrival in Geneva and local transportation

Geneva airport is located 4 km from the centre of Geneva and is easily accessible by train, bus, or taxi.

Trains

The fastest way to travel from the airport to the centre of Geneva is by train. All trains departing from or going to the airport stop in the centre of Geneva at the main train station, Cornavin.

The train journey takes seven minutes, and up to seven trains per hour run between the airport and Cornavin train station.

For live train times, click here.

Buses

Buses run between the airport and Geneva. At the airport, busses depart from outside the front of the airport at the check-in level, one level above arrivals.

The following busses run between the airport and the city centre.

- Bus 10 heading to “Rive” stops at Geneva city centre.
- Bus 5 heading to “Thônex-Vallard” stops at Place des Nations (the UN and CIGG), international organizations and the city centre.

For more information about routes, itineraries, timetables, fares, etc., please consult the Geneva Public Transport website (click here).

You can buy bus and tram tickets using machines at every bus and tram stop. A UNIRESO zone 10 ticket costs CHF 3.00 and allows you to travel to the city centre by train from the airport.

Taxis

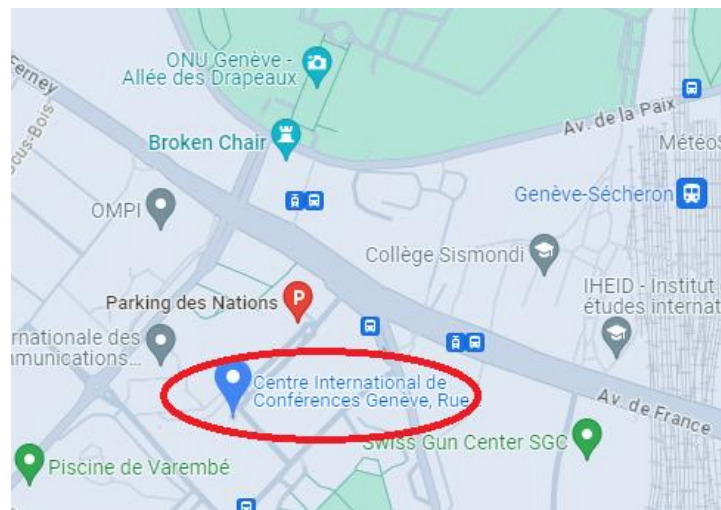

A taxi ride from the airport to Geneva centre costs about CHF 35 and takes about 15 minutes.

II. Venue

The NDM-UN28 will be held at the International Conference Centre Geneva (CICG).

III. Participation

Registration closed on 28 February 2025. If you would still like to register for the meeting, please contact unmasgeneva@un.org.

All meeting participants, including UN badge holders, must have registered to attend NDM-UN28.

Participants will be provided with an NDM-UN meeting badge based on the information provided on the registration form.

IV. Obtaining a meeting badge

Meeting badges will be available for pick-up at the main entrance of CIGC on Wednesday, 9 April starting at 08.00. A photo ID is required to collect your badge.

For security reasons, meeting badges must always be worn and visible while in the CIGC.

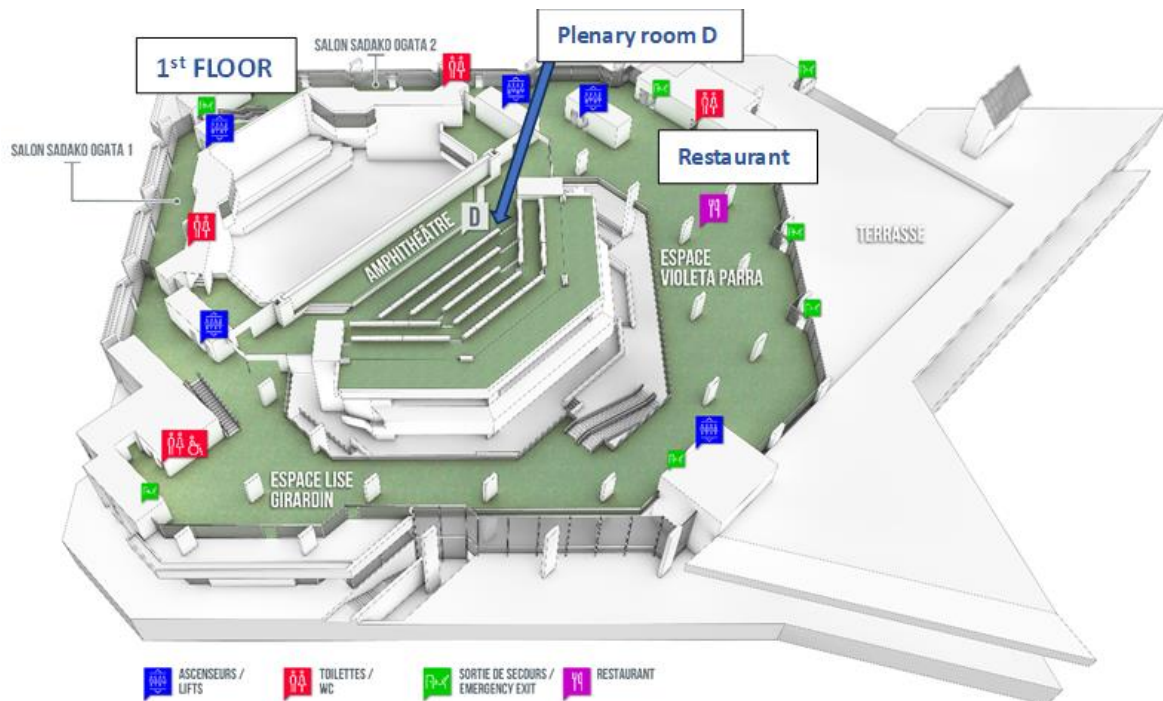

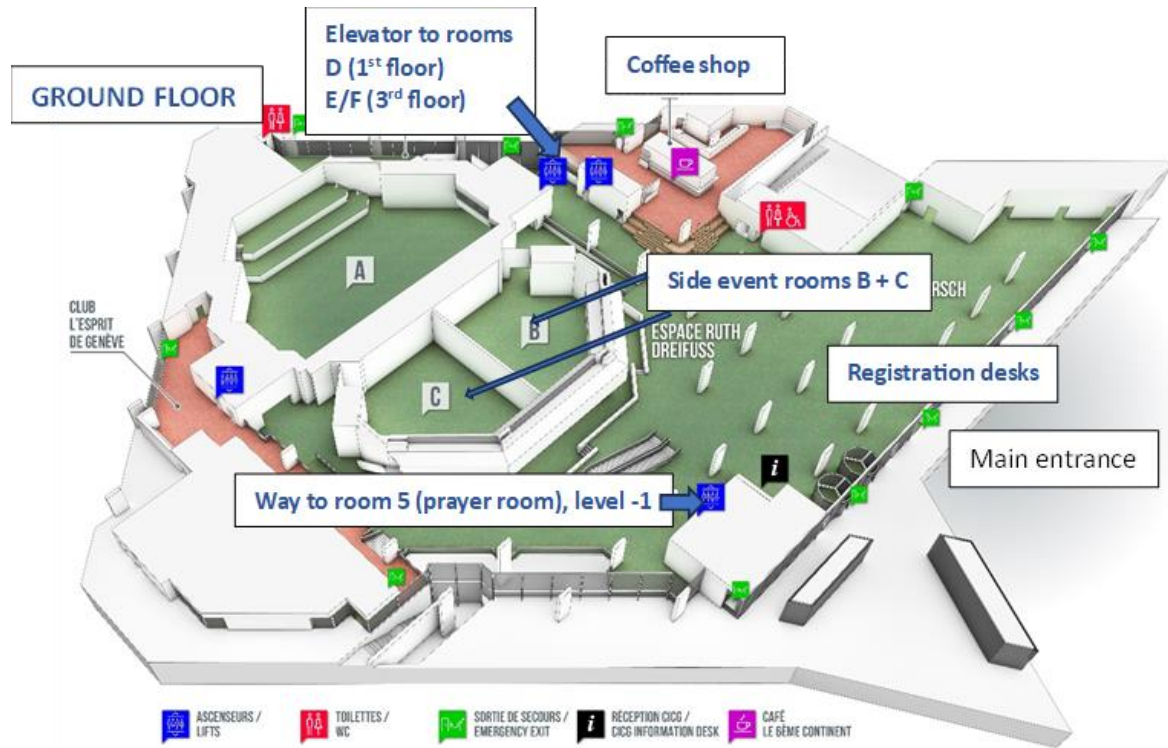

V. Meeting rooms

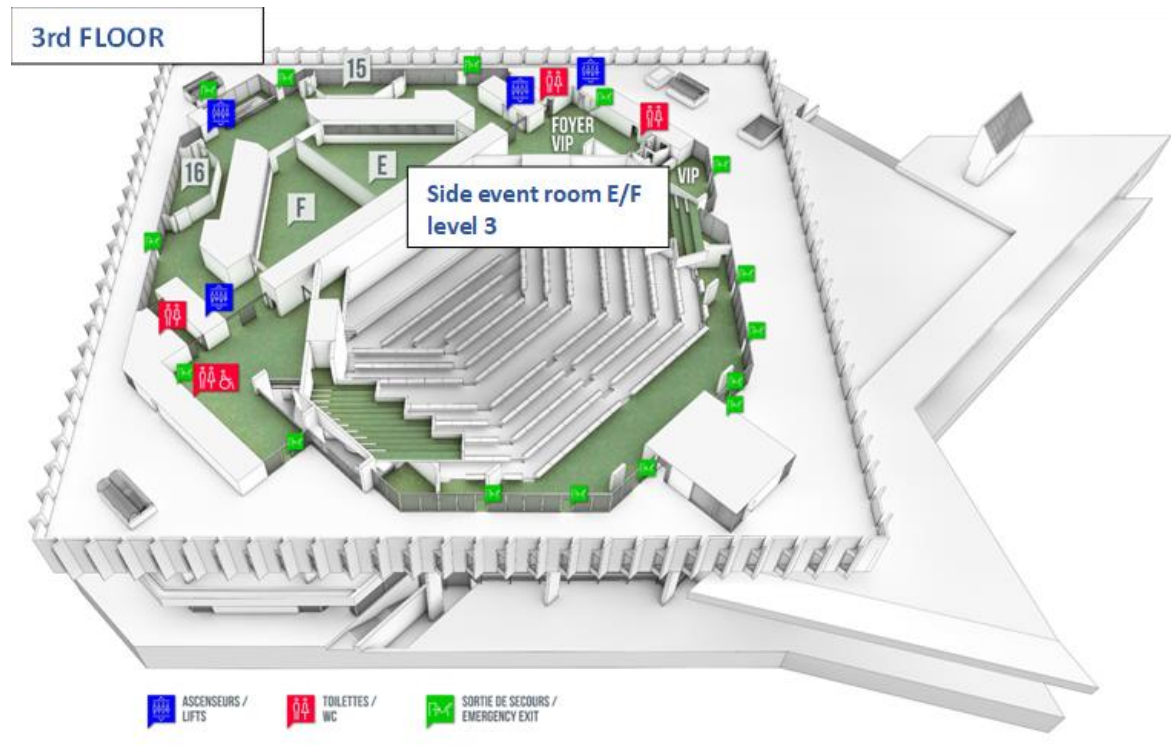

Plenary sessions will take place in the conference room Amphitheatre D (1st floor).

Side events will take place in:

- Side Event Room/Plenary B (ground floor),
- Side Event Room/Plenary C (ground floor), and
- Side Event Room/Plenary E (3rd floor)
- Side Event Room/Plenary F (3rd floor).

All plenary sessions in Amphitheatre D and some of the side events will be conducted in 'Davos style' to encourage more interactive discussions between the panelists and the audience.

Sessions will be recorded. Recordings will be made available on the NDM-UN28 meeting website (click here) following the meeting.

The meeting organizers are committed to providing accessible and inclusive services, physical spaces, and information to persons with disabilities. In case a member of your delegation requires special seating arrangements in the conference room, please inform the meeting organizing team (unmasgeneva@un.org) in advance.

VI. Communications

Meeting participants are welcome to communicate about side events on social media, and to share their experiences on their organization/and personal accounts using the hashtag #NDMUN28.

A limited number of conference photos will be available on the official event webpage, www.ndmun.org. Photos taken during the meeting will be uploaded once a day. Photos can be downloaded and used to communicate about conference activities. Photos should be credited to “© GICHD/Antoine Tardy”.

VII. Code of Conduct

UNMAS and GICHD are committed to enabling an event at which everyone can participate in an inclusive, respectful and safe environment. NDM-UN28 is guided by the highest ethical and professional standards, and all participants are expected to behave with integrity and respect towards all participants attending or involved with it. Please review the UN code of conduct United Nations System Code of Conduct
